Sir:-

In the commitments received in each of the following cases the defendant is committed to the Penitentiary for a certain period of time and in addition thereto the costs of prosecution are assessed against him and the prisoner is to stand committed until the costs are paid.

However, none of the costs are listed in the commitment papers and we are unable to complete our records on these men until we have this information.

Will you very kindly let us have this at your earliest convenience in the following cases UNDER THE SEAL OF YOUR COURT.
